

Connect for Success 2011

Reflect - Refine - Renew

Transylvania County's Second Annual Women's Business Conference

October 6, 2011
Cradle of Forestry In America
Brevard, NC

The Birthplace of Forestry in America

9:00 AM - 4:30 PM: Breakfast and Lunch Included
Meeting Room, Cradle of Forestry of America, Hwy. 276, Pisgah National Forest

Come "GROW" in our thriving business and community "ECOSYSTEM"

- Informative Workshops
- Inspiring Stories from Successful Women
- Invaluable Networking Connections

Keynote Speakers

Exie Wilde Henson

Exie Wilde Henson is a wife, mother, grandmother, educator, conference speaker and author. Mrs. Henson's first historical novel, Beyond This Mountain was published in 2004. The struggles and fun of family life form the background of the story.

Ann Sharpsteen

Ann Sharpsteen is an experienced TV and film writer/producer, having produced projects for CMT/Country Music Television, MTV Networks, CBS News, U.S. Armed Forces Network, The Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville, and more.

Pre-Registration Required
Registration Fee $25.00 includes breakfast and lunch
Register Online at www.connectforsuccess.net or call Angela Owen, 828-884-7540

Organized and presented by the Transylvania County Women's Business Exchange